

SERVICE ENGINEER

Duties and responsibilities

- carrying out administrative matters related to the activities of service
- organizational, logistical and technical support of service activities
- preparing of the commercial offers
- service of the orders for maintenance service and spare parts
- participation in the coordination of service team's works
- monitoring and control of executed orders
- preparing of reports and summaries
- cooperation with sub-suppliers and subcontractors
- other commissioned works necessary for the proper functioning of the service department

Requirements

- min. 2 years' experience in the service department, preferably on machines
- general knowledge within the range of mechanical engineering, electrics and automation
- practical knowledge of technical issues associated with the construction and operation of the equipment will be an advantage
- higher technical education
- excellent command of English
- very good knowledge of MS Office
- ability to plan and coordinate the projects performance
- good work organization
- easy networking
- stress resistance
- availability
- ability to think analytically
- accuracy and thoroughness

We offer

- interesting work in a company with a stable position on the market
- employment under a permanent contract
- attractive salary
- the necessary tools
- ability to work in an international environment
- opportunity to gain the interesting work experience
- possibility of raising professional qualifications

Please apply to the address below

ferox@ferox.pl

with a note SERVICE ENGINEER in the subject line